CONGRATULATIONS TO THE 2012 AWARD WINNERS AND 2013 OFFICERS!

Also a heartfelt thank you to all volunteers and club officers who made the 2012 activities and competitions possible. We are all busy with our “real lives” and struggle to make time and energy for our “riding lives”. Our volunteer time is precious, and we thank those who donate it. We welcome the officers and board members, and will remember your efforts are not without some sacrifice of your riding time.

POSTMARK YOUR IEO MEMBERSHIP BY DEC. 15TH!

If you postmark your IEO membership by Dec. 15th, I will submit your membership to the USDF, in time for you to receive the 2012 YEARBOOK issue of the CONNECTION MAGAZINE. This is in addition to the monthly Connection Magazine that you will receive with your IEO/GMO membership.

With every member, the IEO sends $20 to the USDF for your GMO membership, so you will also be a member of the USDF!

CHECK OUT ALL OF THE BENEFITS ON THE IEO WEBSITE: www.ieodressage.org where you will also find a membership application.

Membership application is on the last page of this newsletter. Remember you can utilize all the wonderful USDF amenities during the winter months when riding is restricted, like USDF's online learning center for dressage and equine education, eTRAK: www.usdf.org/e-trak. Keep in touch with 2013 events through IEO's newsletter and special email announcements. Benefit from the use of IEO's excellent lending library.

MUSICAL FREESTYLE CLINIC

Musical Freestyle Clinic with Evelyn PFoutz, March 2-3, 2013 at Hummingbird Hill Farm, Gettysburg, PA. With the addition of Musical Freestyle at the Training level why not learn how to dance with your horse from the start! A whole weekend dedicated to learning how to choreograph, select music, and understanding the components of a musical freestyle from technical & artistic requirements to judging and scoring. Contact Monica Jordan at mjordan@hh-farm.com or www.hh-farm.com or 717-334-7432 for details.

REFLECTING BACK ON 2012, LOOKING FORWARD TO 2013

The IEO is the oldest Group Member Organization (GMO) in the United States, with a rich history that includes hosting the first U.S. CDI at the York Fairgrounds in 1976, well before most Americans had ever heard of dressage. Our club continues to fulfill its mission to promote dressage riding through a variety of activities and 5 schooling shows each year. Take a minute to recall all that we accomplished in 2012, then look forward to IEO's new challenges for 2013.

In 2012, the IEO launched some new initiatives, beginning last winter with a video clinic called, "On the Levels". This unmounted clinic was so well attended, that we plan to do another like it in 2013. We sponsored a mounted clinic at Harmony Hill Farm with Paula Kierkegaard, which gave our members an opportunity to ride with a well-known dressage judge and clinician. Stakes classes that included money paybacks for the winners were instituted and we were treated to a demonstration of a new discipline being offered by the USEF, called western dressage. We held 5 well-attended schooling shows and finished the year with our annual Year End Awards Banquet, which offered the company of good friends, great food, a wonderful power point photo montage of our members and their horses, as well as beautiful trophies and ribbons. It was a busy and successful year and it all happened because of the efforts of incredible volunteers who donated their time and talents to help the IEO. Extra special thanks go out to retiring IEO secretary Maggie Hawn and board members Margaret Scarff and Kathy Barker for all their help.

Looking forward to 2013, we're making plans to offer a free, unmounted Horse Management Seminar this winter that will allow our members to explore hands-on learning experiences covering topics like braiding, bandaging, basic lunging skills and rider fitness techniques. We're starting a fun, new column for our monthly newsletter designed to introduce and profile one member a month as an easy way for us to get to know each other better. Western dressage classes are being included at our schooling shows this year, as are the new USDF Musical Freestyle Test at Training Level and the just introduced, USEF Riders Tests, which are designed to highlight the correctness of the rider's position and aids, while reducing emphasis on the horse's gaits. More information about these clinics and the new classes will be included in upcoming issues of Close Contact, as well as in the 2013 IEO Omnibus, so stay tuned!

The officers and board members of the IEO look forward to another exciting year in 2013 and hope you plan to join us as we continue to promote dressage and offer the finest dressage schooling shows in south central Pennsylvania!

Susan Moody, IEO President

THE USDF REGION 1 LICENSED SHOW OMNIBUS IS GOING DIGITAL

The Region 1 Omnibus is going digital. Here is how it will work. Region 1 will provide a page on the website that has all the same features of the Omnibus such as show listings, access to dressage tests, Regional Championship rules, information about NAJYRC, Developing programs, Dover Medal etc as well as general competition information.

As a bonus for shows that list with the digital omnibus, a regional e-blast will be sent out monthly containing the shows in the next 30-60 days with links, open and close dates. This will provide a convenient reminder about show deadlines. There will be no cost to competitors. Shows that are interested in being listed will pay a fee of $50 per show for the calendar listing with a link back to their website and in the e-blast. Banner and block ads will also be available for advertisers. For more information, contact Dianne Boyd at greyhorse11@gmail.com. The first US Dressage Finals, presented by Adequan, will be held November 7-10, 2013 at the Kentucky Horse Park, in Lexington, KY.
